

Commonwealth Ombudsman

The Commonwealth Ombudsman helps to ensure the actions and decisions of Australian Government agencies are fair and reasonable. We take complaints, conduct investigations, perform audits and inspections, make recommendations and encourage good administration. Our role is very broad. We take complaints about:

- almost all Commonwealth functions – such as income support, immigration, the National Disability Insurance Agency and many others
- private health insurance
- Australia Post and some other postal operators
- the Defence Force, including issues about abuse between Defence members
- Vocational Education and Training student loans
- private education providers for overseas students.

We also oversee the Commonwealth Public Interest Disclosure Act and inspect law enforcement and integrity agencies' use of certain covert, intrusive and coercive powers. However, we don't handle complaints about the Intelligence community or the tax office.
